Samuel rebuked King Saul for his rebellion by equating it with witchcraft, as you read in the opening verse of this chapter. The Lord would, after the crucifixion of Christ, visit upon them the murder of all those righteous men, that their state should grow worse and worse, till at last the temple should be destroyed, and they finally ruined by the Romans. Elijah had been such a man of God that he was taken up to heaven in a chariot of fire and did not die.

Of the same stamp and character was also Dositheus, the Samaritan, who preter
