He knows that children are careless, and that there will come The Turtle Room time when he will be free to move his house to some secluded place, where he will relight his candle, take out his catalogues and read until at last he yawns. Don't show this popup. Michaela Wiersema has been a staff member of theTurtleRoom tTR for several years and contributes to the Education Department through authoring various articles, and the Animal Husbandry Department where The Turtle Room cares for important assurance colonies.
