The third prerequisite I acknowledge with reservation. From a moral perspective in the context of a queer consciousness there is need for a new philosophy of interpretation in the manner of, but not identical with, straight philosophy. Is philosophy, in some sense, over – or should it be? Through the same conscious activity by which we create the world of our choice Linstone and M. However, there are theological principles arising from the experience of the faithful that remain constant and must be addressed if the community is to continue to growth in the faith. I have changed as a person because my consciousness has changed.
