Comixology Thousands of Digital Comics. Incendiary, foulmouthed comic icon Richard Pryor changed the face of comedy and possessed, as biographers David and Joe Henry put it, a Furious Cool. This is a book worth savoring. Excellent book. However, the italicized discursions into attempted literature and mixed metaphors in the first part of this book really dragged it. And this understanding and appreciation for the lonely, pained soul behind the mercurial persona is the greatest contribution of this book.
