Ashby also formed strong friendships with many of his actors such as Jack Nicholson and often shared houses with his many acquaintances. The Sound of Silence was too personal and polemical to be entirely successful: certain characters are stereotypes, some scenarios lack realism, and the dialogue is at times clunky. Cancel Save.

Istruggledtowardgrowingup,likemostothers,totallyconfused. The rehearsals hadn't been very conventional: the cast read through the script, talked about the characters, expressed their ideas about the story. He wasn't that pleased.
