Any opinions? I am going to try and get as many people to read it as possible; maybe then they might understand somethings that few people seem to. In Little Bee, you do a marvelous job of highlighting the differences between the two while showing that underneath culture, age, and circumstances, there are incredible bonding similarities.

Thisbookisoneofthose-youknow-it'soneofthosestorieswhereatragiceve Does it have to do with Batmans particular morals or the way in which he carries out his duty, or is it simply a childhood favorite, incorporated into this story? When researching, I learned that many refugees take new names either to protect themselves or to make a break with a traumatic past.
