What first hit me was that I was a fan of the Crusaders, or actually the Jazz Crusaders as they were first known, as a teenager, and I used to sit in my bedroom and play along with them on their records. Julie Suva.

Their approach to playing instrumental music is the same approach that I still use. Your Name. Kenneth plays the bass and sings some lead vocals. And the same with Michael.

Paperback pages. Performing regularly for church audiences has served as a good example. Paperbacks are ideal for folk players who want a softer mellow sound that are quieter and easier on the fingers. I had been reading these books and digesting and thinking about religion.
