It would be either "Unaussprechliche Kulte" unspeakable cults or "Von unaussprechlichen Kulturen" of unspeakable cults. Which is probably why in the official German editions they generally prefer to use the English names.

This is a subtrope of Gratuitous Foreign Language and really should be used with caution. Since none of them spoke or understood enough German, they just memorized their lines and delivered them as they saw fit, which resulted in hilarious mispronunciations. Editors: Marc Maufort and Jessica Maufort.

Asuka: Gott, I just came back and you are already having thoughts about me. He also sometimes speaks German, once saying 'Heil den Ich' after he makes a 90 degree landing on a aircraft carrier.
