One such man was Quss ibn Saidah. Hear this word which I intone As a dirge over you, O House of Israel: Fallen, not to rise again, Is maiden Israel; Abandoned on her soil Wi t hnonet ol i f the rup... For thus said my Lord God: The town that marches out a thousand strong Shall have a hundred left And the town that marches out a hundred strong Shall have but ten left. This was not an easy process, as many Arab and Berber clans involved in the conquest of al-Andalus were reluctant to relinquish their control over the towns they had conquered and settled.
