Perhaps the strongest justification of state-recognised marriage is that it gives legal protection to the more vulnerable member of a divorcing couple, usually a woman. In a collaborative divorce, the parties negotiate an agreed resolution with the assistance of attorneys who are trained in the collaborative divorce process and in mediation and often with the assistance of a neutral financial specialist or divorce coaches.

Could this have anything to do with cohabitation. Due to differing standards of life, friends, is boring. The worst is that the alteration is far from a success.

Truly, parents are suffering severely from divorce. For one is the beginning of a committed relationship and the other is the ending of one.
