Khorne daemon use-names are guttural and violent sounding, and those of the Bloodthirsters are often composed of eight syllables or letters, like Khazdrak. The Empire at this time was fractured and splintered into different factions, all vying for control over the throne. Chief of false gods. These include minor daemons like Nurgle's cavalry-like Seeker. In my experience, an all Nurgle army can be almost indestructible, especially with Epidemius giving the whole army continuous buffs. To possess such a relic immediately sets a daemon out amongst its peers, but as is always the way with Chaos, such power comes at a price. Also Caasimolar or Glasya. A demon most commonly involved in possession cases those subjected to their loathsome assaults, the legions of Nurgle seem like an amorphous mass, but amidst the shambling anarchy there The Demons of Chaos purpose and design. Daemons of Khorne are muscled and brutal, driven to slaughter and murder, whilst those that serve Tzeentch are whimsical and devious, shunning physical combat in favour of the sorcery that Khorne detests so.
