In memorializing Brewster after the Elder's death in Governor William Bradford also supplies additional details on aspects of worship in Plymouth: . Since they were well outside the confines of Virginia, the colonists sought to legitimize their venture by forming the Mayflower Compact. This first attempt of the Scrooby congregation to flee was in the fall of AllthiswhiletheIndianscomeskulkingaboutthem,andwouldsometimesshow Some wanted to separate it from other churches by purifying it of all Catholic practices. They set forth the 15 of November; and when they had marched about the space of a mile by the seaside, they espied five or six persons with a dog coming towards them, who were savages; but they fled from them and ran up into the woods, and the English followed them, partly to see if they could speak with them, and partly to discover if there might not be more of them lying in ambush.
